

Top local company in search of a Dynamic Change / Turnaround Agent, with superior technical skills and progressive managerial experience to lead the US glass inspection equipment manufacturing business.

Emhart Glass Manufacturing Inc. is seeking a PLANT MANAGER/SITE MANAGER for its site in Horseheads, NY.

This role provides strong leadership and coaching for a team of approximately 80-100 skilled and professional employees engaged in cutting edge packaging inspection equipment manufacturing operations and international logistics services.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following:

- Responsible for the management of machining, assembly and warehousing operations, site maintenance, quality assurance and facilities enhancement.
- Participate in the development of strategic growth planning, while driving tactical execution.
- Drive efficiency improvements in Logistics & Manufacturing business related activities, in coordination with Sales, RD&E, HR and Finance
- This role should seek to grow and enhance the local business model in line within the global corporate philosophy and culture.
- Acts as cross-cultural link for internal communications with other sites, departments and employees.
- Understands how to work within a global matrix structure, interacting with employees and sites located in US, Europe and Asia.
- Promotes and assists in implementation and management of an international quality system including ISO 9001, ISO 14001 and ISO 45001.
- Prepares and manages applicable site / department budgets.

REQUIRED EXPERIENCE/EDUCATION:

- Bachelor's Degree in an Engineering field, Business or Supply Chain Management.
- 7-10 years of progressive electro-mechanical equipment manufacturing experience.
- Significant exposure to companies with international business models.

The successful candidate will be required to undergo multiple styles of screenings, interviews and other familiarization opportunities. A post offer drug screen, background check and physical are also required.

Emhart Glass Manufacturing Inc. is an equal opportunity employer.

Job Type: Full-time

Job Type: Exempt

Emhart Glass Manufacturing offers its employees a highly competitive salary, paid vacation & holidays, superior 401k retirement plan matching & contributions combined with other great benefits. Our company prides itself on our highly developed succession planning and career growth management allowing for the retention of incredible talent!