

Title: Junior Production Automation Engineer x 3

Job Holder: Vacant

Reporting to: Director Special Projects

Responsibilities

- Commissioning and optimization of automation products within the E2E market offering
- Actively participate in the development of automation products from concept to commercial offerings
- Work within the glass production environment in managing the development of technologies through the project phases from concept > design > development > commissioning and support
- Development of product documentation to support market offerings
- Develop training material to support automation products
- Form part of the automation product installation, commissioning and optimizing the product in the glass forming environment

Tertiary Qualifications

- Degree in mechanical / electrical / electronics (Mechatronics preferred)

Experience

- At least 3 to 5 years in direct glass production (no exception)
- High level knowledge and experience of the three glass manufacturing processes
- Glass forming knowledge in a glass forming production role

Additional requirements

- Prepared to travel globally, often and extensively
- Prepared to actively work within the glass production environment, globally